

Meeker, to-day passed resolutions confirming the Indian Department, and calling for the punishment of the murderers of Meeker and a stricter surveillance of the military over the Indians. Copies of the resolutions will be sent to the President and Secretaries.

Following are extracts from a letter from Agent Meeker your reporter unearched to-day. They show that three months ago Meeker saw his danger, but was unable to gain the credence of the Department. He says July 2:

"The time of a state at that agency is to draw the Indians away, but there can be none because the keeper could not sell ammunition. But it seems it can be sold anywhere of the reservation, and, though contrary to law, notification is done. I stop it, but the Indians are never far from the camp every quarter where I thought anything could be done. I shall have Douglas send on to recall his band. The rest are sure to do the same. The Indians are massing at Fort Payne no kind of attention to my repeated requests to keep the Indians off of land that does not belong to them. I do not see where my power comes in, for, of course, I have no jurisdiction over the Indians.

Now, if it is to be expected from the Indian at best, but I am satisfied if he cannot be restrained by force his rambunctious habits will remain unchanged. Should that not be the case, I will be in entire conflict with the advancing white man. I wish you yourself would appeal to the military, and I hope you will have better success than I have had."

PROSPECTS.

RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 11.—No courier has yet arrived from Merritt. It is feared that the Shoshone and Northern Arapahoes will join the Utes. Every effort will be made by the military to keep them on their reservations. Depredating bands of Indians are devastating the country, and the settlers are fleeing towards this place.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 11.—Chief Ouray is reported to be using all his influence on the side of the Indians.

Mansfield, who was supposed to have been killed at the White River Agency massacre, is reported to be alive, and with Price.

The freighter Gordon is also reported to be alive.

The alarm of the people is subsiding, though they are greatly agitated on the subject of the further continuance of the Indians in the State.

CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The following interesting correspondence, explanatory in itself, was received yesterday by Acting Indian Commissioner Burleigh:

"To the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C.—Sir: I have the honor to inclose for your information a copy of a telegram from Mr. Lewis, White River Ute, wired you to-day. Also a copy of a letter to the commanding officer of the troops at Fort Payne, which I consider important. The letter was sent at the request of Joseph W. Brady, an employee of this Agency, accompanied by an account of the number and names of Indians. Ouray's order was sent on by special runner. I also inclose a copy of a letter to the Southern Ute Agency, in which he states that he intended to have the mail-carrier at White River was killed; and, therefore, I took the liberty of sending you a dispatch, as I did not know what to do, other than in any other way. WILLIAM STANLEY, Agent."

Los PINOS Agency, Oct. 12.—To the Objects, Captain, Headlines, and Columns of the White River Agency. You are hereby requested and commanded to cease hostilities against the whites, including no more than the Indians, excepting certain Indians than to protect your own lives and property from unlawful and unauthorized combinations of horse-thieves and deserters. Your further will ultimately end in disaster to all parties.

Head Chief of the Ute Nation.

Los PINOS Agency, Oct. 12.—To the Objects, Captain, Headlines, and Columns of the White River Agency. You are hereby requested and commanded to cease hostilities against the whites, including no more than the Indians, excepting certain Indians than to protect your own lives and property from unlawful and unauthorized combinations of horse-thieves and deserters. Your further will ultimately end in disaster to all parties.

WILLIAM M. STANLEY, Agent.

FROM GEN. SHERIDAN.

The following telegram has just been received at the War-Office:

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Gen. William T. Sherman, U. S. Army, now in command of the Western Division, has been ordered to proceed to the front, and will take command of the forces now in the field between Rawlins and White River Agency until Gen. Merritt, he who has been ordered to proceed to the front, arrives from the headquarters to push on to the Agency, and to leave no stone unturned to punish these Indians who attacked the settlers and killed the Agent and his employes, and thereby their unconditional surrender should be accepted.

H. B. SHERRIN, Lieutenant-General.

IN WASHINGTON.
Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The Indian Bureau is preparing for the attack which is certain to be made upon it as soon as Congress meets. The advocates of the transfer of the Bureau to the War Department will take advantage of the opportunity to urge the necessity of an immediate change in the Indian system. One of the arguments which will be used is the charge that the Indian Bureau was advised in time of the imminent danger of an outbreak on the part of the Utes, but delayed calling for troops for the reason that it was hoped that the difficulties might be averted, and because there was a strong desire not to seem to be dependent upon the military in the conduct of Indian affairs. Secretary Schurz and Commissioner Hay, however, will undoubtedly claim that the utmost diligence was exercised in the delay, and that outside interference will only tend to aggravate, and will do no good.

WILLIAM M. STANLEY, Agent.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE TRIBUNE".

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The Indian Bureau is preparing for the attack which is certain to be made upon it as soon as Congress meets. The advocates of the transfer of the Bureau to the War Department will take advantage of the opportunity to urge the necessity of an immediate change in the Indian system. One of the arguments which will be used is the charge that the Indian Bureau was advised in time of the imminent danger of an outbreak on the part of the Utes, but delayed calling for troops for the reason that it was hoped that the difficulties might be averted, and because there was a strong desire not to seem to be dependent upon the military in the conduct of Indian affairs. Secretary Schurz and Commissioner Hay, however, will undoubtedly claim that the utmost diligence was exercised in the delay, and that outside interference will only tend to aggravate, and will do no good.

RALPH MECKER,

son of Meeker, the Indian Agent who was murdered at the White River Agency, has received a commission from the Interior Department to proceed to that agency as soon as military operations will allow, and take charge of the property there for which the Interior Department is responsible. Mr. Meeker has sought this mission in order, it is possible, to vindicate his son, who has seen a good deal of service on the frontier, and who was one of the correspondents in the field of the New York Advertiser in the Turco-Russian war. He is at present connected with the Advertiser.

CAPT. FRANCIS S. DODGE.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Oct. 11.—Geo. Pope, Commander of the Department of Missouri, yesterday issued general orders highly complimentary to Capt. F. S. Dodge of the Ninth Cavalry. The following is an extract:

The General Commander of the peculiar pleasure in exercising his privilege, to publicly and formally to express his high appreciation and hearty commendation of the gallantry and soldierly conduct of Capt. Francis S. Dodge, Ninth Cavalry, and the officers and men of his Company, D, Ninth Cavalry, in forcing a junction with the forces under Capt. Payne, Fifth Cavalry, who were being pursued by the hostile forces in the rear. The report of this is announced is written with the severest brevity, and shows that Capt. Dodge, in addition to other qualities possessed that perfect moderation and skill which mark every true soldier. His conduct is held up for the emulation of the officers in this Department, and will be duly brought to the notice and consideration of the Government.

CONFIRMED RUMORS.

THE WINTER ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The Indian authorities regard the rumors and reports of trouble at Los Pinos and other Colorado reservations as unfounded. They think that the Indians of the Colorado and of Los Pinos, who have deserted their posts and retreated to Animas City, forty or fifty miles south of Ouray, is also incorrect, as to get to the latter point he would be obliged to pass through Ouray, where there are a number of State troops, while there are none at Animas City. There are also a number of colored well-armed Indians here, and the reports between Los Pinos and Animas City.

NONOTUCK STILL AHEAD.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 11.—The Nonotuck Silk Company, No. 150 Fifth Avenue, Chicago; Nonotuck Silk Company, Boston; and the Nonotuck Silk Company, New York, have given notice for manufacturers silk, Bobbins and cutting premium on raw silk and cocoon. "Grosvenor" still ahead. First premium at Cincinnati; "Price Model" always over our competitors. Truth is stronger than fiction. We ask for the price of (bought) raw silk? Not the Nonotuck Silk Company.

FOREIGN.

NAVAN, Ireland, to Have Grand Anti-Rent Gathering To-Day.

GEN. ROBERTS AWAITING REINFORCEMENTS BEFORE CABUL,

WHICH ARE PUSHING FORWARD WITH ALL SPEED FROM SEVERAL QUARTERS.

THE KHYBER PASS COMMUNICATIONS STILL INTERRUPTED BY NATIVES.

TWO FRENCH POLITICIANS RESORT TO THE ARBITRAMENT OF THE PISTOL.

THE WEST SCANDAL AGAIN FURNISHES FOOD FOR THE LONDON Gossip.

RUMORED APPOINTMENT OF A NEW PONTIFICAL SECRETARY OF STATE,

GIVING FRESH HOPE OF AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN GERMANY AND THE VATICAN.

LANDLORD AND TENANT, THE AMERICAN EDITION IN IRELAND.

LETTERS TO NEW YORK HERALD.

NATIONAL SCANDAL IN IRELAND.

LETTERS TO NEW YORK HERALD.

THE IRISH SCANDAL.

LETTERS TO NEW YORK HERALD.

LETTERS TO NEW

CRIMINAL NEWS.

Grand Rapids, Wis., the Scene of a Shocking Tragedy.

A Prominent Judge and Politician Murdered in the Street.

His Slayer the Cashier of a Bank at Centralia.

Consuming Jealousy Said to Have Been the Incentive to the Crime.

Yesterday's Testimony in the Young Trial at Kahoka, Mo.

ASSASSINATED.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

OAKWOOD, WIS., Oct. 11.—A news special from Dallas says the cabin of a negro woman named Esther, on Aldridge's plantation, early this morning was broken into by a band of forty gunmen who demanded her son Charley. Upon a refusal the door was fired into and a gun wounded a freedom inside and on the outside, who was shot dead. The gunmen then forced open Esther and her family, with a negro from a neighboring cabin, carried away. Several negroes escaped. Esther and her son Charley were shot dead. Several arrests have been made.

NEGROES MURDERED.
GALVESTON, TEX., Oct. 11.—A news special from Dallas says the cabin of a negro woman named Esther, on Aldridge's plantation, early this morning was broken into by a band of forty gunmen who demanded her son Charley. Upon a refusal the door was fired into and a gun wounded a freedom inside and on the outside, who was shot dead. The gunmen then forced open Esther and her family, with a negro from a neighboring cabin, carried away. Several negroes escaped. Esther and her son Charley were shot dead. Several arrests have been made.

HEAVY ROBBERY.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Dr. N. C. MacLean, of London, arrived in the city with his wife a few days, and took room at 84 East Twentieth Street last night, during the absence of the robbers. The dispatch gave the following particulars:

"The community was thrown into great excitement Thursday by the killing of H. Hayden, County Judge of Wood County, by W. Cochran, cashier of a bank here. The killing took place about 6 o'clock in the evening on the sidewalk nearly in front of the Rubin House. Hayden was standing talking with a friend when Cochran passed by, taking a good look at Hayden, and apparently looking for something. Recognizing Cochran he quickly drew a pistol from his coat, pointed it at Hayden, who was two feet of his height, and fired. The pistol was loaded with buckshot, the native system of which Hayden received in the breast and neck. Hayden uttered but one cry, and fell over backwards to the sidewalk, and expired almost instantly. Cochran immediately delivered himself up to the authorities, and is now in jail. The affair grew out of the alleged intimacy of Hayden with Cochran's wife, which is matter of Jones' standing and about which much scandal has been circulated, and which has been more or less public, for which Hayden had recently commenced an action for libel against a paper here. Some time ago Cochran and his wife parted on a visit to Europe, and it is believed she has since been seen with Hayden, which so excited Cochran as to induce him to take this step. Great excitement prevails throughout this county and community, and public sentiment is nearly equally divided on the subject. Many justify Cochran under the circumstances. A mob for the purpose of lynching Cochran gathered, and for a time seemed probable. Hayden leaves a wife and three children.

HEAVY SENTENCE.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11.—John Cannon, the stolen-bond receiver, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for ten years.

INDICTED.
BOXING, Oct. 11.—The Grand Jury has indicted Charles Demond for embezzling $25,000, the property of the Massachusetts Home Missions Society.

THE RAILROADS.

NEARLY A DISASTER.

The Chicago & Alton Railroad had a very lucky escape from a serious accident yesterday morning. The passenger train coming north out of the Rockwood station, which for some cause became detached from the engine, and the sleeping conductor, who were in the sleeper, as soon as they found that they were left on the road, took the necessary precautions to prevent the car being run into. The brakeman went some distance south and placed a torpedo on the track to warn trains coming that way, and the porter went north to perform the same business. The latter did not return, however, and was never seen again. The porter was a man of positive conviction, and such the Colored possessess, so far as National issues are concerned. He is an

UNCOMPROMISING REPUBLICAN.
GRAND RAPIDS, WIS., Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

Lester Cochrane was in Minnesota, and while there corresponded with Judge Hayden, so the story goes. A letter, directed to Hayden, was in some manner delivered to the hands of the cashier, and he, for their sake, got the stock had been removed from the chains adjacent. News of the arrival of the railroad agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

Something like order has been chaotic mass. As fast as the identify their plunder it was done. A trunk was found and box smashed, or where derailed or packages ruined, the day assessed.

PROBABLY PAID.

Were some dissatisfied, and yet the opposite, to obtain an old coin-trunk the value of the railroad men acted to make a stand in the sufficient grave to them to force the agent to pay for their goods, but by virtue of the stock had been removed from the chains adjacent. News of the arrival of the railroad agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off will go out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

Something like order has been chaotic mass. As fast as the identify their plunder it was done. A trunk was found and box smashed, or where derailed or packages ruined, the day assessed.

PROBABLY PAID.

Were some dissatisfied, and yet the opposite, to obtain an old coin-trunk the value of the railroad men acted to make a stand in the sufficient grave to them to force the agent to pay for their goods, but by virtue of the stock had been removed from the chains adjacent. News of the arrival of the railroad agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off will go out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

CONTRACTOR.
Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—The terrible tragedy has come at last, and Grand Rapids and Centralia (separated only by the river) are in a fever of excitement. The trial of W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the Centralia Bank, shot and instantly killed Henry Hayden, Judge of the Wood County Court, a political well known throughout the State, and a lawyer of great ability. The trial of Cochrane, the old story of illicit love, and whether the reports are true or false, the result is certain and fatal. Cochrane was a hard man, of about 55, tall, thin, and in appearance, and quite a beau among the fair sex, despite his wife and three children. Cochrane, the bank cashier, was his firm friend, and the handsome Judge, who was a man of high social position, sided over by his wife, a petite beauty, whose reputation for harmless flirtations was understood by everybody.

The Grand Rapids Tribune and Grand Rapids Register noticed the arrival of the agent house boat on the water, property either safe or paid off went out to-day.

The Tribune.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

BY MAIL—IN ADVANCE—POSTAGE PREPAID.
Post Edition, one year.....$12.00
Parts of a year, per month.....1.00
Subscription, one year.....$12.00
Sheet.....2.00
Saturday.....6.00
WEEKLY EDITION, POSTPAID.
One copy, per week.....$1.00
Club of ten.....11.00
Club of twenty.....20.00
Special.....
Give Post-Office address in full, including State and County.
Rentances may be made either by draft, express, Post-Office order, or registered letter, at our risk.
TERMS TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
Daily, delivered, Sunday excepted, 25 cents per week.
Daily, delivered, Sunday included, 30 cents per week.
Address THE TRIBUNE COMPANY,
C corner Madison and Dearborn-sts., Chicago, Ill.

POSTAGE.

For the benefit of our subscribers who desire to send single copies of The Tribune through the mail, we give herewith the transit rate of postage:
Domestic.....5 cents
Night and Twice per Week.....3 cents
Sixteen Page.....2 cents
Eighteen and Twenty Page.....2 cents
Twenty-four Page.....2 cents

TRIBUNE BRANCH OFFICES.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE has established branch offices for the receipt of subscriptions and advertisements as follows:
—NEW YORK—Room 20 Tribune Building. F. T. MADDEN, Manager.
PARIS, FRANCE—No. 16 Rue de la Grange-Bateliere.
LONDON, ENGLAND—American Exchange, 49 Strand.
BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF.—4920 Wilshire Boulevard.
WASHINGTON, D. C.—1219 F street.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

1. O. O. F.—Meeting of First Swedish, No. 478, and Second Swedish, No. 479, at their hall, 122½ Washington and Clark-sts., Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock sharp, to celebrate the funeral of their deceased comrade, and all United Patriarchs are cordially invited.
W. T. KELKIN, N. G.

N. J. CHIONA, Captain.

THE ST. GEORGE'S BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION will hold a special meeting this Wednesday evening, Oct. 15, at 7:30 o'clock, at their hall, 122½ Washington and Clark-sts., Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock sharp, to celebrate the funeral of their deceased comrade, and all United Patriarchs are cordially invited.
JOSEPH WRIGHT, Secretary.

HOME LODGE, NO. 308, A. F. AND A. M.—Members of Home Lodge are notified to appear at their hall, 122½ Washington and Clark-sts., Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock sharp, on Sunday, the 12th inst., at 12 m., to witness the installation of our late brother, Henry Keville. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited.
W. M. HOLMES, W. M.

CHICAGO LODGE NO. 479, A. F. AND A. M.—Members here are notified to meet at their hall, Oriental Building, 122½ LaSalle-st., on Sunday, the 12th inst., at 12 m., to witness the installation of our late brother, Henry Keville. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited.
ED GOODMAN, Grand Secretary.

THE NEWBERRY LIBRARY FUND.
Mr. GEORGE JACOB HOLYOKE, of England, just arrived in Chicago, is regarded as a labor-reformer by means of co-operative stores and shops, and looked upon as an eminent apostle in the crusade for the amelioration of the condition of workingmen. Mr. HOLYOKE has been kind enough to give him a view upon this and kindred subjects to a representative of The Tribune ; and if we shall hereafter doubt his capabilities as a reformer, or his knowledge of the things he wishes to reform in this country, the fault is due to himself. Even persons below the average grade of intelligence will detect a certain amount of shrewdness in his mode of attack, and it is well understood among the ward politicians of all shades.

WE refer to the deliberate purpose of a gang of Democratic politicians, in case they succeed in nominating their favorite candidate, to carry this fall's election by systematic repeating and ballot-box stuffing.
All the conditions promise to be particularly favorable to carrying out this scheme. There is a general impression that the Registration law applies to the entire county election. This proves to be an error. It applies only to those districts which elect County Commissioners. There is no check of registration upon certain locations which are most favorable to frauds, such as the Town of Lake (including the Stock-Yards), South Chicago in the lower end of Hyde Park, Lemont, and other districts which do not vote for Commissioner at the coming election. The Democratic politicians have been going around among the districts exempt from the requirement of registration and informing their partisans that they will be under no restraint, but may vote as often as they like; and a certain class of Democrats are very fond of voting often, especially when they are paid for their trouble.

Besides the opportunity thus furnished for overcoming the Republican majority in the outlying towns by fraudulent means, preparations have been made for extensive repeating in the city. That it is possible to repeat and to stuff the ballot-boxes has been sufficiently demonstrated by former town elections, and by the charter election under Convin, when the old charter was abandoned in order to enable that person to hold the office of Mayor beyond the term for which he had been elected, and when the general charter was forced upon the people by wholesale ballot-box stuffing, in defiance of public sentiment and honest votes. The same gang in the main that engineered that gigantic fraud so successfully will have charge of the repeating and ballot-box stuffing in four or five wards of the city, and will be prepared to pile up any number of bogus votes that may be required to overcome a Republican majority in the remainder of the city and county. The police force is now a mere partisan machine, and no more protection can be expected from that source than was furnished in the late special election in the First Ward, when Mike McDONALD, Dave THORNTON, and Joe MACKIN controlled all the bogus affidavits and fraudulent voters necessary to the election of their man.
Republican caucusing will be more effective if it is devoted henceforth to the devising of ways and means for circumventing and defeating the Democratic fraud program. It will make no difference whether the Republican candidates be good, bad, or indifferent, nor whether the Republican vote be permitted to vote their gangs of repeaters and stuff the ballot-boxes to make good any deficiency in the fraudulent votes. No relief can be expected from the Courts. The Courts are mainly Democratic, and they did gild practically in the COLVIN charter fraud election that they would not interfere to annul an apparent majority, no matter how much fraud there had been in procuring it. Successful frauds on the ballot-box are almost invariably allowed to stand, and punishment for committing such frauds is so rare and feeble that the knowes willing to commit them are rarely afraid to go at the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

WHAT THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County Boss in the person of County Treasurer whom they can rely upon. They want to dictate to the County Board. They want to manipulate the machinery for carrying Cook County in the Presidential election next year. They want to revive the excesses, the corruption, and the extravagance that rotted in the city under the COLVIN regime. It is this prospect which will again unite all the vicious elements of Chicago on the Democratic side this fall, and provide all the fraudulent voters, and all the ballot-box stuffing that may be required to elect their ticket. These people know how to do the work. What are the Republican committees and clubs doing to head off and prevent this contemplated election rascality? Echo answers, What!

THE BUMMERS ARE AFTER.
It is a big prize the bummers are after this fall. They want to get control of the County Treasury. They want a County letter has a much more the discovered dines inner rousing jealousy, excitation, while the latter alone?

known fact that many bit of temporary ap-of wear and ornament for the purpose of presentable appearance on city, of course intend-

This is peculiarly a failingness, who sometimes arrogance and vainglory entertainments of the aid of their mis-course, per se; this is a reflects the floundering woman to make herself possible, which is every when considered in the the theory, may we not ent habit of temporari-people's money—or of returning it—
unless practice?

reformer's theory

not contain a solem-man? If this foraging thieves, mail-robers,

zingers, ought she not to and assume that their character to disturb a hold? Is not a blissful to the possibilities result from such raids?

There is an exodus of some consequence from the Maritime Provinces of Canada. The route of says that thousands are going from Nova Scotia to the United States in search of employment.

Mr. LELAND's sketch of "Abraham Lincoln and the Abolition of Slavery" is justly described by the Springfield Republican as "a dull, wearisome history."

10 persons that it could not provide for, after taking care of 500 guests. For a month past all the first-class hotels have been crowded to their almost capacity with strangers, and we suppose the second-class houses are also full. The hotel fees a thriving business. Indeed, the present business outlook looks to prove two things: (1) that one may predict as great things for the future of Chicago as one pleases, and she will always rise again; (2) that there is a tremendous "boom" in every avenue of trade, and that every vein of commerce tinges to its extremities with the healthy blood of life and and the action of Glenn's Salpifer Soothing Syrup.

The Southern campaign now being conducted by Republcan speakers and the Northern partisans will inevitably unite all the discordant elements of the southern Democracy. — New Orleans

The threat has been often made by Southern politicians and politicians, and sometimes with effect. But there is now a common impression at the North that the South is united for all practical purposes. To talk about its being united, unless the Northern press conceal or deny the truth, is a stale trick. The Northern press is not now engrossed in that sort of business.

The Civil-Damage bill, about which much trouble is being made in Massachusetts, holds out a hope to the lawless.

Gen. Beauregard is the Receiver of a large bank in New Orleans.

Gen. Tom Thumb is 45 years old and weighs seventy-five pounds.

Gen. Talbot, of Massachusetts, with his Council, is on a tour of inspection of State institutions.

James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, will sail for India next month, and be absent a year.

Thomas J. Griffith, of Utica, owns the first greenback issued by the Government, and has refused $700 for it.

Mr. John G. Whittier is to read a poem at the unveiling of the statue of "Emancipation" in Park Square, Boston.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., is reported to have sold to Miss Anna Hamilton, of No. 29
West Twenty-first street, New York.

Professor Bismarck's family gets into a carriage in the following order: First, Bismarck, then Bismarck's dog, next Bismarck's wife.

The Boston Transcriber says: "Dr. Oliver
Wendell Holmes will have a complimentary dinner planned for him by the publishers of a certain magazine."

Prof. Gray, it is announced, has been reognized as the original inventor of the telephone, and is to receive 20 per cent of the profits from the rental of the machines in America.

M. Vieuxtemps, having finally and for reasons of failing health resigned his position at the Royal Conservatory of Music at Brussels, is to receive a pension from the Belgian Government.

A German proverb says: "Ein Wab-scheitwurst aus was sie nicht weiss." The landlady mainly watches him with the pleased interest with which a dealer in "long pig" beholds a mistreatment which he and his partner against cannibalism. The other day, when a big black border came for him, and when the landlady saw his hand tremble as he took it, and beheld him clutch at a chair for support, she thought with pride who would get ahead of him one meal at least. But she didn't. Tearing the letter open, she wrote at its conclusion with a steeled pen:
"I am the last to be sorry for you."

The Boston Transcriber says: "Dr. Oliver
Wendell Holmes will have a complimentary dinner
planned for him by the publishers of a certain magazine."

The Program Committee submitted a revised
order of exercises, which is as follows:

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 13.

Boutines and exercises meeting at 10 a. m.
at the club-room of the Palmer House. At 3 p. m., reception of Gen. U. S. Grant at the Northwestern Hotel. Dr. C. L. Clark,
President of the National Veterans Club, and Gen.
Friedrich Lieber, commanding the Veterans Reform
Club, have on behalf of their respective organizations invited the members of the Society to a banquet in their honor. It is to be hoped that other societies and organizations of ex-soldiers who intend to take part in the meeting of the Committee on March 1st, will do the same.

The entire movement will be in charge of the Secretary of the Committee, Capt. John T. McAuley, No. 183 Madison street, at an early date, that plenty of time may be given for preparation.

The Program Committee submitted a revised
order of exercises, which is as follows:

THURSDAY, NOV. 13.

Adjourned exercises meeting at 10 a. m. at the club-room of the Palmer House, the first half-hour being devoted exclusively to members of the Society.
The general, and invited guests, will be the general, with other officers and soldiers of the Rebellion.

In the evening will be held the annual banquet and exercises.

Friday, Nov. 14.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 13.

WEDNESDAY, NOV.

THE CITY.

GENERAL NEWS.

H. B. Rose, U. S. A., is at the Tremont.
Col. D. C. Houston, U. S. A., is at the Pacific.
Frank N. Ashton, U. S. N., is at the Palmer.
M. L. Bowers, New York, is a guest at the Gardner.

Frank Graves, Boston, is quartered at the Gardner.

J. H. Wilson, Rock Island, Ill., is at the Gardner.

Dr. Mattoon, of Oswego, is a guest at the Sherman.

T. H. Clarke, of Montreal, is a guest of the Pacific.

Lansing H. Hopkins, of Utica, N. Y., is at the Sherman.

Joseph Vilas, of Manitowoc, Wis., is a guest of the Tremont.

George C. Davenport, St. Paul, is registered at the Gardner.

Stephen Bell, of Racine, is among the guests of the Sherman.

Lieut.-Col. J. Fenton of England, is staying at the Palmer.

Capt. J. F. Smallman, Grand Haven, is staying at the Gardner.

Wm. P. Hall, of St. Joseph, Mo., is registered at the Palmer.

Gen. G. T. Beauregard, of New Orleans, is registered at the Palmer.

Anthon Blood, of Manchester, N. H., is registered at the Pacific.

John Sharpe and family, of New Zealand, are domiciled at the Palmer.

Charles Adams, Jr., ex-Treasurer of Massachusetts, is sojourning at the Pacific.

S. S. Merrill, General Manager of the Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, is at the Tremont.

John L. Burleigh, of the Wisconsin Arbor, Mich., is among the guests of the Tremont.

Mrs. John Wilcox and daughter, of the Gardner, returned from an extended visit East.

J. A. Davidson, Birmingham, and R. N. Appleton, Stockton-on-Tees, England, are domiciled at the Pacific.

Charles H. Butler, Esq., of Oswego, N. Y., is spending a few days in the city, and stopped at the Sherman House.

No news of the Indian country was received at the Pacific yesterday, and the impression prevailed that the fury was about over.

E. B. Mitchell, General Manager of the Blue Line, Rochester, and C. S. Tapan, General Manager of the Hoosier Tunnel Line, Rochester, are at the Pacific.

Mr. Leon Mandel, of the firm of Mandel Bros., arrived in the city on Wednesday, and has his headquarters at the Sherman. He is a native of New York, where he is permanently located, as resident buyer for the house.

The temperature was, as observed by Mr. Mandel, 65° F. at 8 a. m.; 71° at 12 noon; 10 a. m., 72°; 12 m., 73°; 75°; 76°; 3 p. m., 78°; 8 p. m., 75°; 10 p. m., 73°; 2 a. m., 70°; 6 a. m., 69°.

Andrew Schinavon, 3 years of age, living with his parents at No. 115 De Koven Street, was run down by a team of horses, and a carriage, on the corner of Kouns and Clinton Streets, by a hansom delivery wagon, owned by Tepey and driven by Hugo Hiltz. The little fellow's injuries were not serious.

Mr. George Jacob Holyoke, one of the leading and most thoughtful of the Radical reformers of England, who is at present a visitor in America, arrived in the city yesterday from the Redwood Record, Berford, to give an address in the Church of the Messiah Sunday evening. His subject will be the principles of Socialism.

Mr. Fred Mather, Assistant to the United States Fish Commission, received a car-load of salmon eggs yesterday from California by the Chicago & Milwaukee Railroad, and will have them delivered to their destination this afternoon by the Pittsburg & Fort Wayne for distribution among the schools.

A 55-year-old man, James Kilroy, proprietor of a coal-yard at No. 550 West Twelfth Street, was accidentally thrown from his wagon while turning a corner on the street, and died from a fractured skull. He was 73 years old.

Andrew Schinavon, 3 years of age, living with his parents at No. 115 De Koven Street, was run down by a team of horses, and a carriage, on the corner of Kouns and Clinton Streets, by a hansom delivery wagon, owned by Tepey and driven by Hugo Hiltz. The little fellow's injuries were not serious.

Charles Eastholt, a worthless sort of a fellow, was given employment some time ago by Dr. John Johnson, a jeweler, at 115 De Koven Street, to clean the saloon, and proceeded at once to do his work in a very slovenly manner, and even shot a bullet into his brain. Death ensued immediately.

The deceased was of Swedish birth, 35 years of age, and had been a sailor, a fisherman, a peddler, a huckster, and friend, and remorse at his condition, which was attributed to the result of his dissipation, is supposed to have been the prompting motive.

WHERE'S COMOTICK?

Complaints are frequently made to police officers that they are not fully distributed among pampuses and other advertising being circulated among towns by a specialist named Bigelow. The police are requested to make a report, stating what can be done to stop this matter.

Mr. Willard, in presenting the resolutions on the death of Dr. Abbott, whose disease was announced at the previous meeting, Prof. Willard presented the following report:

WHEREAS, Our friend and brother, Dr. N. W. Abbott, died on the 1st inst. during the vacation of the present Society; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting that we should place on record our sympathy for those left behind.

WHEREAS, We have employed girls at $3 a week, and, having found them phonemically good ones, have raised them to $4 a week, when a girl in the next house, doing precisely the same work, was paid $3.50. We can easily imagine that, indeed, they are intended for practice which they propose to put in practice. In talking with the lady who manages this agency yesterday, and who neither needs nor desires advertisement in the matter, having a large number of girls, she said, "I am not afraid to let you know that I have a girl here, and her name is Truauau. She reports good qualities of her plan, and that Truauau gladly lays them before us. Lady readers this Sunday morning for what they are worth, merely remarking that their obvious merit should commend them as deserving of at least a fair trial."

ONE OF THE CHIEF FAULTS

of the present system is the glaring inequality in wages. There are families of three in this city who pay their girls $4 a week, and again there are families of seven who pay $2.50 a week for precisely the same service. There is no greater evil than this, and it is the vacation of the Society; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting that we should place on record our sympathy for those left behind.

WHEREAS, We have employed girls at $3 a week, and, having found them phonemically good ones, have raised them to $4 a week, when a girl in the next house, doing precisely the same work, was paid $3.50. We can easily imagine that, indeed, they are intended for practice which they propose to put in practice. In talking with the lady who manages this agency yesterday, and who neither needs nor desires advertisement in the matter, having a large number of girls, she said, "I am not afraid to let you know that I have a girl here, and her name is Truauau. She reports good qualities of her plan, and that Truauau gladly lays them before us. Lady readers this Sunday morning for what they are worth, merely remarking that their obvious merit should commend them as deserving of at least a fair trial."

THE LONG-CONTINUED REFORM

is about to be tried, in this city at least, by some of the most prominent ladies in the community who have the nerve and the determination to lead. The more they are about to inaugurate they have the more difficulty in getting the public to pay attention to them. The popular press, however, is not to be blamed for this. The Evening Journal has really taken a stand, and is giving voice instead of being checked, and is giving voice instead of being reprimanded, and the Advertiser has reprimanded the Journal.

Mr. Willard, in presenting the resolutions on the death of Dr. Abbott, whose disease was announced at the previous meeting, Prof. Willard presented the following report:

WHEREAS, Our friend and brother, Dr. N. W. Abbott, died on the 1st inst. during the vacation of the present Society; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting that we should place on record our sympathy for those left behind.

WHEREAS, We have employed girls at $3 a week, and, having found them phonemically good ones, have raised them to $4 a week, when a girl in the next house, doing precisely the same work, was paid $3.50. We can easily imagine that, indeed, they are intended for practice which they propose to put in practice. In talking with the lady who manages this agency yesterday, and who neither needs nor desires advertisement in the matter, having a large number of girls, she said, "I am not afraid to let you know that I have a girl here, and her name is Truauau. She reports good qualities of her plan, and that Truauau gladly lays them before us. Lady readers this Sunday morning for what they are worth, merely remarking that their obvious merit should commend them as deserving of at least a fair trial."

THE EXHIBITION

is about to be tried, in this city at least, by some of the most prominent ladies in the community who have the nerve and the determination to lead. The more they are about to inaugurate they have the more difficulty in getting the public to pay attention to them. The popular press, however, is not to be blamed for this. The Evening Journal has really taken a stand, and is giving voice instead of being checked, and is giving voice instead of being reprimanded, and the Advertiser has reprimanded the Journal.

Mr. Willard, in presenting the resolutions on the death of Dr. Abbott, whose disease was announced at the previous meeting, Prof. Willard presented the following report:

WHEREAS, Our friend and brother, Dr. N. W. Abbott, died on the 1st inst. during the vacation of the present Society; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting that we should place on record our sympathy for those left behind.

WHEREAS, We have employed girls at $3 a week, and, having found them phonemically good ones, have raised them to $4 a week, when a girl in the next house, doing precisely the same work, was paid $3.50. We can easily imagine that, indeed, they are intended for practice which they propose to put in practice. In talking with the lady who manages this agency yesterday, and who neither needs nor desires advertisement in the matter, having a large number of girls, she said, "I am not afraid to let you know that I have a girl here, and her name is Truauau. She reports good qualities of her plan, and that Truauau gladly lays them before us. Lady readers this Sunday morning for what they are worth, merely remarking that their obvious merit should commend them as deserving of at least a fair trial."

THE CITY-HALL.

The Mayor granted eleven pardons for the week ending yesterday, which is an increase over the previous week.

The City Treasurer yesterday received $1,700 from the Water Department, $603 from the Collector, and $617 from the Controller.

Among the building-permits issued yesterday was one to J. H. Hinman, to erect a two-story dwelling, No. 403 South Madison, to cost $2,000.

Ad. Lawton, of 200 Madison, is engaged in erecting over a new residence boy's school.

Yester evening the Mayor was invited to welcome the Army of the Tennessee at their meeting in this city Nov. 12, and he accepted. He will prepare a speech for the occasion.

The Fire Department yesterday entered into a contract with Henry Stomps to furnish hay for the winter, and the Mayor signed the contract.

Washington. Having yesterday complained that the asphalt at the State street bridge was insufficient, and his insistence is to be looked into.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

He will be called in to meet him.

Commissioner Waller is daily in receipt of complaints that the new-fangled covers for the manholes are not fit for use.

IT FAIL
IT THE
AN
UIT CO.
ITS
ENT.

RELIGIOUS.*Fourth Day's Proceedings of the Methodist Conference.*The Brethren Object to Hearing Dr. Crafts' Church Troubles.*Reaction from the Anti-Christian Theories of Late Years.*The Methodist Church Disavows Partisanship—It Is Above Men and Parties.*Talma Inspires Disgust by the Blowing of His Own Trumpet.*General Notes, Personals, Sabbath Salad, Services To-Day.*METHODIST CONFERENCE.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The conference met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Bishop Andrew in the chair.

The sachem of J. P. Jones, as a local seneor was voluntarily relinquished, with an accompanying letter.

The Committee on Temperance presented a report reminding the Conference that every member of the Methodist Episcopal Church belonged to the largest, most permanent and efficient total abstinence society in America; also that the general rule of the Church prohibits the use of intoxicating drinks except in cases of extreme necessity.

This makes the Church a temperance organization, and bids the people to a temperance pledge taken under the most sacred and impressive circumstances. Every consistent Methodist is pledged to total abstinence, and the Committee say, should be reminded of these obligations occasionally. The means of grace of the Church was vastly more effective to keep men from habits of intemperance or to reclaim the fallen than any merely human or social bond could possibly be. Therefore they bid Godspeed to every agency for advancing the interests of temperance. The Committee on Temperance also presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Church, with its means of grace, is the most powerful agency for promoting the work of temperance.

Resolved, That it will do ample service for all legitimate social and political agencies for the advancement of the cause of temperance, so far as we can do so consistently and honorably.

Resolved, That we are unanimously opposed to legislation as incorrect in principle and injurious in result, and that we urge upon our members to abstain from all acts of legislation prohibited by liquor laws.

Resolved, That we unanimously command the members of the Anti-Saloon Christian Temperance Union, and recommend compliance with their request, which is in harmony with the direction of our dear Bishop, that the funds now available be devoted to the cause of temperance in all our churches.

Resolved, That we desire the members of the Conference and Church to heed the advice of our committee concerning the use of tobacco. Consistently with the spirit of temperance, the Conference from probation, nor welcome any transfers, who are addicted to the habit, and we hope that the same course will be pursued by every member of the Conference whose example is in conflict with our discipline in that respect.

It was decided to hold the next Conference at Court Street Church, Brooklyn.

The following five delegates to the General Conference were taken, and W. H. Atwell was elected. William Augustus Smith and Cooper Clegg were elected reserve delegates.

The Rev. W. H. Crafts, late pastor of Trinity Church, arose to a question of privilege to explain, as he said, a little misunderstanding among the members of the Conference as to the action of his church in expelling two of its members for an alleged "violation of discipline."

Bishop Andrew, from the chair, decided that this was not a question of privilege, and that Crafts had been an active member of the Conference, and therefore ought to have the same privileges, under the rules, as a member of Congress when replying to an attack.

The Presiding Bishop told the whole subject over again at this time.

Brother Hatfield, who always reads the newspapers, called attention to the fact that Mr. Crafts had already published an explanation in the Independent, and suggested that perhaps, as far as the gentleman (Crafts) to read that to the Conference instead of making a speech. (Laughter.)

Brother Crafts was sorry to hear Mr. Crafts advised to commit too grievous a sin.

Brother Crafts, who was still on his feet, thought it would be wise to deny a slanderous statement.

Brother Hatfield said there was something in the case that need not be explained. He had seen the letter of Brother Crafts with regard to the conduct of the Conference, and he understood him to be correct, one his administration was wrong. If it was a wise thing to do, the Conference might appoint a committee to investigate the matter.

The Presiding Bishop insisted that this was in some a privileged question.

Brother Crafts insisted on being heard.

Brother Willing again suggested a committee.

Brother Crafts did not seem to be much taken with that idea, and remarked that there was no need of a committee.

Brother Willing remarked that the kindest thing to Brother Crafts would be for the Conference to appoint a committee.

Brother Crafts wanted the Conference to hear him in full, and asked whether it should appoint a committee or not.

The Presiding Bishop said the first question before the house was an allusion to Mr. Crafts to speak, and that he could not be expected to do so.

After some further controversy, and after the meeting had become considerably warmed up, a vote was taken on the question of hearing Mr. Crafts.

Brother Hitchcock thought it would be well to enrage the committee to fifteen, in other cases to twenty.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts replied by saying that he wished to make a speech.

After some further controversy, and after the meeting had become considerably warmed up, a vote was taken on the question of hearing Mr. Crafts.

Brother Hitchcock thought it would be well to enrage the committee to fifteen, in other cases to twenty.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

The Presiding Bishop could then tell what was in the case.

Brother Crafts objected to being snuffed out, and proceeded to inform the Conference that he was not a member of the court by which the action was taken, and in his opinion this was not a matter of discipline.

A weary debate with a yawning moved that whole subject be laid on the table.

Brother Hitchcock protested vehemently against this.

Brother Willing made another speech to a Committee of Inquiry, before which Brother Crafts could be invited and heard at length.

THE STAGE.

THE DRAMA.

CHICAGO.

AN INTERVIEW FORSTALLED.

For some time past the New York World has been liberally and ingeniously devoting its columns to the publication of interviews in which the managers of New York were the heroes.—Boucoul, Haverly, Steele Mackay, Daly, Abbey, Lester Wallack, and the rest of them. These geniuses have enriched the profession not only on account of the originality and interest of their news, but the management's popularity displayed has been so great as the modesty exhibited by most of all the others. The burlesque of the story, of course, in every case was their own greatness. In New York, however, has been exceeded,—that is, managerial greatness in the Herald, in its most decided effort to enlighten the public in regard to the ins and outs of the power. It is the hunt for conquests new, so to speak. Robson and Crane were to have been the first victims. The correspondent called upon these gentlemen the other day, and found them cowering upon their Turkish divans the same as before, with as much mystery as ever. Her reporter was about to burst in upon them, and there is no telling at this time what the final result will be.

A few seasons ago the World had a temporary arrangement with California for seasons' engagements. Now they appear to be coming back quite as rapidly. Tom Keene is to go to New York Oct. 20, and will last two weeks. The sale of seats will begin next Thursday morning at the box-office. The company includes the following artists: Miss Teresa Singer, dramatic prima donna; Miss Leontine Blanche, dramatic prima donna; Miss Anna Maria Little prima donna; Mme. de Vassal, prima donna; Mme. prima donna contralto; Petrowitch, Balanchine, and Lazarini, tenors; Stordt and Gottschalk, baritones; Castiglia, basso; Papini, basso-baritone; Mme. Valeria, soprano; Mme. Alice, soprano; Mrs. Lancaster and Miss Arcana, soprano; Mr. Lederer, Signor Sirini and Ferrarino, bartenders; Mr. Belurus and Signor De Novellis, conductors. The repertoire for the first week will be as follows:

NEW YORK.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

New York, Oct. 8.—Dann Platt, the new Brooklyn Theatre, and Clara Morris have between them secured the first failure of the season. And it was not due to any fault of the management, but to mitigating circumstances. The theatre, of which Jack Haverly is lessor and manager, is a tawdry affair, decorated with paintings that would be more in place upon the panels of a street-car, and upholstered with a regard for the utility of space which could only be described as contemptible. The ventilation of the new Brooklyn theatre is the most wretched character, and when, as on Monday evening, the audience is of a character more savory than refined, the effect suggests the propriety of calling distasteful into use.

"What is the best play you've written—ah—I should say, cab, that best play evah written—ah—I was in 'The Comedy of Errors,'" readily responded Robson, emphasizing each word with his index finger.

"And the best play of modern times?"

"'Aida,'" put in Crane at once.

"And—oh, I played it as in San Francisco with immense success—with immense success, sah," Robson said.

"Written by Joseph Bradford, author of 'Our Bachelors,'" remarked in another version of the wins. "It's in—is—it's in 'Aida'—ah—and as stirring as the very best works of Shakespeare or Leonard Grover, sah." In Bradford proved himself to be a comic author of the first rank, sah.—of the first rank; the equal of either of these two dramatists, the only right and proper author of the century—Maurice—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sah."

"Is it true that Boucoul has something in his history for you?" the correspondent inquired.

"No," replied Crane. "That gentleman enjoys the distinction of being the only literary man in America who has not written a play for us."

"To catch the subject,—could you, Mr. Crane, please?"

"I couldn't; but I'm confident Robson could, and he'd give him a lively whiz as that gentleman ever received. The refined, the severely classic face, the scholarly mind, the intellectual head of Mr. Robson, and Crane, become, however, the most stirring and dramatic characters—ah—and he'd make him pecunially adapted to this part, and he'd make him as he never been—ah—and sweetly."

Hoboken made an acknowledgment.

"Now, Mr. Robson," said the correspondent, "do you consider the stage of to-day a healthy condition?"

"Ah—no."

"To what influences do you attribute the prosperity?"

"To—the flourishing condition of our finances—of our finances, sah; but they were not increasing, and that was the trouble. Then, in the middle of a speech to order a carpenter to 'stop that noise,' and when again she paused to ask her speaker, 'or not,' there was a boy him of inquiry in the house as to whether the talk, was to be continued, or not. That was the trouble. Pain in his armies have done their part in mortal trial with which she had been furnished by Mr. Robson. But, in addition to that, there were mistakes in the writing of the play, and the manager—ah—with Bartley Calhoun, my dash sa

ROOMS.
Continued.
AV.—EL-GANT ROOMS,
fully furnished or unfurnished,
improved, $27 week.
FINISHED FRONT ROOMS,
front alcove room
rooms also another room.
FRONT ROOMS AT 162
and 164 FAMILY ON WEST PARK, two handsome rooms near by. Address Q. M.
ME SUITE OF NICELY
FURNISHED ROOMS, with kitchen, without board, modest conveniences; good terms. $14. DEARHORN-ST., furnished, $20.
FURNISHED FIRST,
corner of Aerated
COPPER ROOMS,
private, $14. Furnished front room, 41 Carpenter.
FRONT FURNISHED
ROOMS, terms preferred. $15.
OMS UP-STAIRS, WITH
TERMS OF PAYMENT, $24.
BROOK-ST. CORNER YAN
ROOM, single or en suite; modest, $12. Furnished at reasonable rates.

DOES FOR LIGHT HOUSE,
opposite 1000 N. Dearborn, map 10 in business.
WU FURNISHED ROOMS,
in a family of two, in new house, $12. References required.

ELMEN, CAN FIND A ROOM IN A PRIVATE FAMILY AND FINISHED FRONT ROOMS,
100 Adams St., $12.
A Sige.

GE-COURT-TWO PLEASE-furnished, suitable for two
NT LARGE AND SMALL
OVERSTOCKS, $12.

DOES FOR WADASH-
NTH and SIXTEEN, $12.

AN—NEWLY AND NICEly to responsible par-shed room and two parlor room; hot and cold
COURTS HAS CHANGED
terms reasonable room exchanged.

ROOMS, SINGLE OR FOR $30 Chicago-st.

FURNISHED FRONT ROOM, MEN, NICELY FURNISH-ED, single room. $12.

FRONT ALCOVE ROOM,
single room. 47 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

D. HOUSE OF 10 ROOMS,
modest, $12. For good parties and units and divided rooms. TOM HOUSE-
family, 600 Washington.

FURNISHED ROOMS WITH SUITES, NICELY FURNISH-
ED, private family, $12.

ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

D. HOUSE OF 10 ROOMS,
modest, $12. For good parties and units and divided rooms. TOM HOUSE-
family, 600 Washington.

FURNISHED ROOMS WITH
SUITES, NICELY FURNISH-
ED, private family, $12.

ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 205 Wa-

ASANT FRONT ROOMS,
rooms above, unfinishe-

COUNT, CORNER MICH-
NISHED rooms, single or ea-

CHEN—ELEGANT SMALL
BED ROOM; private family.

FURNISHED ROOMS, HOT-
TEST; also, nice hair-
dressing room. 48 Mich-

LEND FRONT ROOMS,
FIREST, 20

